

How to get the most out of your experience at

THE LADY BALL Atlantic

1. Ensure that you have a strong internet connection. Try to reduce the number of devices using wi-fi if possible
2. Log in and explore THE LADY BALL virtual event portal before the show starts
 - a. You will get a welcome email in the days leading up to the event from PheedLoop - be sure to check your spam folder or junk mail because you need this email to enter
 - b. Your email will contain a unique username/password for you to enter
 - c. Using your unique username/ password log in and get familiar with the portal
3. The Happy Hour Pre-Show and the Main Show, will be on the “Main Stage” in the portal
 - a. You can find the Main Stage in the teal section on the left-hand side of your screen when you are logged in
4. Chat with other guests and socialize using the chat feature on the right-hand side of your screen throughout the evening.
5. Bid on items in the online auction!
 - a. This is a separate site from our virtual event portal and requires its own unique login – be sure to set this up before the event so you are ready to bid
 - b. You will get early access to the online auction via links in your welcome email as well as on the teal section on the right-hand side of the screen in the virtual event portal
